2. The above list is not strictly in the order of seniority and need not be construed as a seniority list of Assistant Section Officer. Further, wherever the date of confirmation is after completion of two years after joining the service, the period in excess of two years shall be deemed as extension of probation period.

3. The above mentioned Assistant Section Officers may submit application addressed to Central Provident Fund Commissioner through proper channel within three months from the date of issue of this order for counting of their past service/ employment rendered in Government Departments/State Government which follow pension rules as are applicable to Employees Provident Fund Organisation before joining Employees' Provident Fund Organisation, and for treating such service/ employment as qualifying service under CCS(Pension) Rules, 1972 in the case where applicable under the rules. The application should be self-contained, giving relevant particulars of service/employment, the address of the cadre controlling authority, terminal benefits received, etc., with the undertaking to deposit the amount as per the above said Rules.
